

IKEA FAMILY Insurance

“Swipe to Insure - Swipe your IKEA FAMILY card and insure your items for free, against accidental damages on the way home or whilst building your items”

Please read the below terms and conditions:

If you are an IKEA FAMILY member your products will be insured against accidental damage during the journey home, even if you are taking them home in your car. You are also insured against accidental damage whilst building your items.

- The benefit applies to IKEA products purchased in any one transaction where the IKEA FAMILY card is swiped at the time of transaction. Articles found to be damaged during transit to your home address will be replaced on a like for like basis.
- You must present your IKEA FAMILY card together with proof of purchase when returning any damaged item.
- IKEA FAMILY members have 90 days from the date of purchase to return any item damaged during transit or whilst building.
- You will be offered a replacement item on a like for like basis or a refund card to the current selling price of the item.
- This benefit is in addition to any other separate insurance provisions you may have. This is in addition to your statutory rights.
- This benefit applies to items purchased in the UK and Ireland only and applies only to IKEA FAMILY members.
- This benefit does not affect your statutory rights.
- Items purchased from the Bargain Corner are sold on an as seen basis and are not covered by the benefit.
- Items on the Home Delivery service are covered by the service provider, as outlined by their terms and conditions.
- Items on the Installation service are covered by the service provider, as outlined by their terms and conditions.
- Cut fabrics are not covered by the benefit as they are cut to order.

Get more of IKEA