A close-up photograph of a light-colored wooden cabinet or drawer. A dark, horizontal strip, possibly a handle or a decorative element, runs across the front of the cabinet. The lighting highlights the grain of the wood.

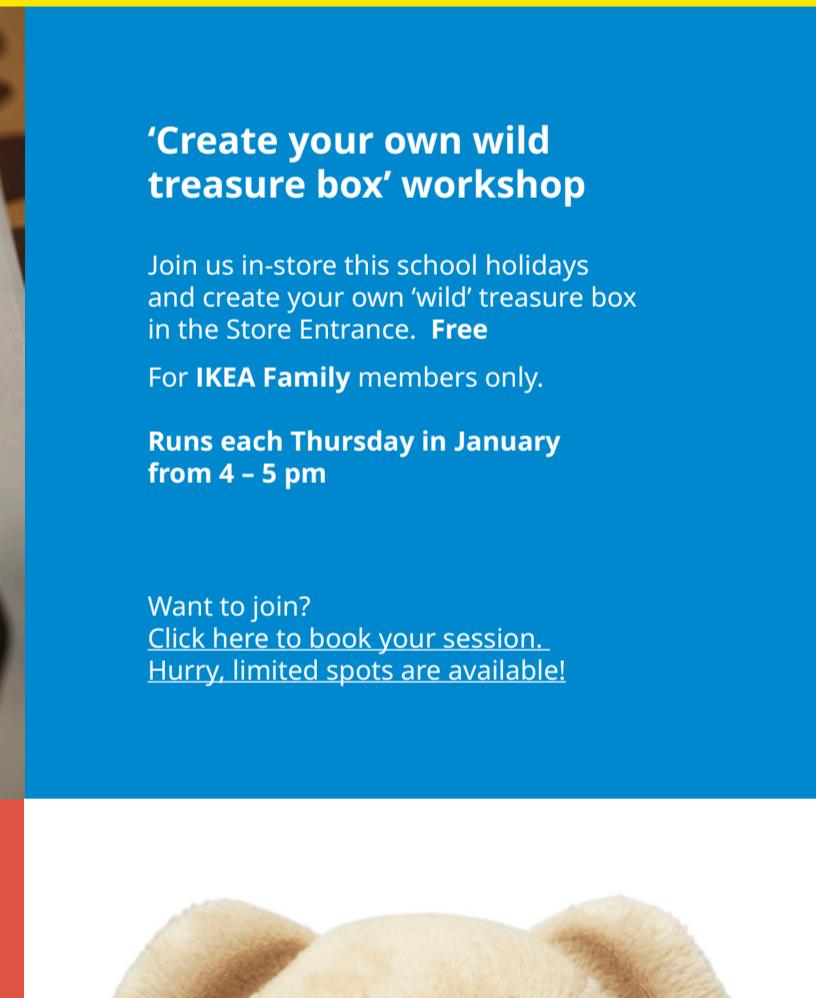

A white storage bin is filled with various colored papers, including green, yellow, and blue. A hand-drawn map of the world is pinned to the front of the bin, featuring a grid of latitude and longitude lines and a colorful pattern of triangles and dots representing landmasses and oceans.
