What will IKEA do to correct the problem?

IKEA will examine the product and decide, at its sole discretion, if it is covered under this warranty. If considered covered, IKEA through its own service operations, will then, at its sole discretion, either repair the defective product or replace it with the same or a comparable product. If it is covered by this warranty, IKEA will pay the costs of repairs, spare parts, labour and travel for repair staff, that IKEA incur, provided that the product is accessible for repair without special expenditure. This does not apply to any repair work not authorized by IKEA. Replaced parts become the property of IKEA.

If the item is no longer sold by IKEA, IKEA will provide an appropriate replacement. It is IKEA that determines, at its sole discretion, what constitutes an appropriate replacement.

How country and provincial law applies

This limited warranty is to the benefit of the original purchaser of the product. All limited warranties on products sold within Canada are not transferable beyond the original purchaser with the exception of residents of the province of Saskatchewan.

This limited warranty gives you specific legal rights. This limited warranty does not, in any way, affect the rights given to you by law. You may also have other rights under applicable provincial law. IKEA is not responsible for incidental or consequential damages. Some provinces do not allow the exclusion or limitation of incidental or consequential damages, or limitations on the limited warranties, so these exclusions or limitations may not apply to you.
