What will IKEA do to correct the problem?

IKEA will examine the product and decide, at its sole discretion, if it is covered under this guarantee. If considered covered, the customer will choose between having the defective product repaired or replaced, unless one of the options is impossible or disproportionate. In case of repair, IKEA will pay the costs of repairs, spare parts, labour and travel for repair staff, that IKEA incurs. This does not apply to any repair work not authorized by IKEA. Replaced parts become the property of IKEA.

In case of replacement, if the item is no longer sold by IKEA, IKEA will provide an appropriate replacement. It is IKEA that determines, at its sole discretion, what constitutes an appropriate replacement. If neither the repair nor the replacement of the defective product is possible, the customer will choose between a price discount or the termination of the contract. Contract termination will not apply in case of minor defect.

What is not covered under this guarantee?

This guarantee does not apply to products that have been stored, assembled or installed incorrectly, used inappropriately, abused, misused, altered, or cleaned with wrong cleaning methods or wrong cleaning products. This guarantee does not cover normal wear and tear, cuts or scratches, or damage caused by impacts or accidents. This guarantee does not apply if the product has been placed outdoors or in a humid environment. This guarantee does not cover consequential or incidental damage.

Care instructions

Assemble according to the assembly instruction and secure the sliding doors by fixing them to the ceiling and floor. Keep in mind that different ceiling materials require different types of fittings.

Clean the floor rail and door wheels regularly to make sure that the doors are easy to open and close, and to avoid damaging the wheels. Wipe clean with a cloth dampened in mild cleaner. Then wipe clean with a dry cloth.

How country, provincial and state law applies

Under current consumer protection law, customers benefit from a legal guarantee period, during which IKEA will be responsible for defective products, starting from the product's delivery date. For specific products, IKEA offers a voluntary additional guarantee (commercial guarantee). This commercial guarantee gives you specific legal rights, and is in addition to your statutory legal rights.
