“sillmacka”

The “sillmacka” (herring sandwich) is familiar to every Swede as a starter, as a tasty bite between meals, or as a natural part of the midsummer buffet.

This is what you need (4 servings):

A slice of bread, preferably home-made coarse rye bread or similar

Butter

Any herring, 3-4 pieces

A boiled and sliced egg

Sour cream

Chopped chives

This is how you do it:

You can't go wrong, really. Butter the bread. Add the boiled egg slices and the herring pieces with a dollop of sour cream on top. Garnish with chopped chives. And that's it!
