How to turn lost spots into hotspots

Your home is brimming with opportunities, if only you could see it. That wasted corner that hides in the shadows? It could easily be transformed, you just need to have a lightbulb moment (aka some IKEA inspiration) to realise its true potential.

This solution will help you uncover hidden possibilities in the home. By simply turning unused space into smart favourites, you'll be able to see your home in a new – and more organised light.

May the treasure hunt begin.

Create a mini storage sweet spot on wheels by making the NISSAFORS trolley part of the main attraction. It's the perfect set-up for your favourite books, as well as fun nick nacks and important documents. The best part? You can make all these things come to you.

Maximise that empty nook in your hallway with savvy storage that flexes with the seasons. Got kids? Give them their very own TROFAST tray to make organisation personal – and fun.

PH183068.JPG OMAR shelving unit 199 kr/st 304.830.73 TROFAST wall storage 369 kr 798.983.06

Ready for spring? Us too. But play it safe by keeping warmer layers, like knitwear, coats and waterproof footwear close at hand – just in case. With the OMAR shelving unit, you'll be ready for all weathers, come rain or shine.

PH183067.JPG MULIG clothes bar 59 kr 301.794.35 TROFAST wall storage 369 kr 798.983.06 OMAR shelving unit 199 kr/st 304.830.73

PH183019.JPG MULIG clothes bar 59 kr 301.794.35 HYLLIS shelving unit 149 kr 304.283.26

The space underneath staircases provides endless opportunities when it comes to maximising storage options. Seasonal clothes and decorations? Keep them here, ready for rainy days.

PH183226.JPG New HEMMAFIXARE shoe box 119 kr/2 st. 405.039.14

When the weather is constantly changing, you need all types of footwear, which can get messy. Enter HEMMAFIXARE: neat storage for muddy trainers or your favourite boots – just unzip them when the right moment, or outfit calls.

It's what's on the inside that counts

This solution explores turning hidden storage into something that makes you smile on a daily basis. Because we all know that being organised feels good, even if it's behind closed doors – and drawers.

Do you love your clothes? Make sure you do them justice by organising them beautifully with our PAX wardrobe system, as pictured here. Just note: you'll want to play dress up every day.

You take pride in your appearance – so make sure that your favourite wardrobe pieces get the same level of attention. How? By storing them neatly with love and care.

PH183482.JPG New HEMMAFIXARE storage case 139 kr 905.039.16

We all know spring weather can be unpredictable – who hasn't been caught in a downpour before? Be prepared and keep warmer layers just a zip away so you can stay one step ahead of the forecast.

Do you feel like you can never find what you're looking for? Contain bathroom clutter (and minimise unnecessary stress) with neat baskets and storage containers that not only look good, but make you feel good, too. Think calm on the inside, sleek on the outside.

Meal times can be stressful, especially when there's multiple mouths to feed. Take the pressure off by storing the essentials with clever organisers and smart lighting. Satisfaction, guaranteed.

Find your flow

We lose time and energy searching for lost items every day: think keys, wallet, headphones, hair ties – the list goes on. What if you could win back time by making a few smart and simple organising updates?
