PR Impactful launches 13 FY21 / 1

PH175698

Home is where the heart is. It's also where all your stuff is. In some homes, there's lots of stuff; in others, there's less. Many of these things are hidden in drawers, cupboards, and closets. Others are spread out around the home, in the open.

This seasonal IKEA launch is a helping hand in replacing chaos with order – regardless of who you are, or how far you want to go. In this launch you'll find news, ideas and inspiration to start cleaning out, sorting, displaying, hiding, recycling, giving away, selling. There are ideas and solutions for every space, from where you hang your coat to where you dress, sleep, brush your teeth, eat or just live your life at home.

Welcome to the season of a more organised you.

A wooden shelving unit with grey storage bins. In the foreground, a white LEGO BYGGLEK storage system is shown, consisting of a large baseplate and several smaller boxes. The baseplate is built with white LEGO bricks and has a small window. Inside the window, five LEGO minifigures are standing. The baseplate is surrounded by several smaller white boxes, some of which are open, showing they contain small items like beads and LEGO bricks. The background shows a wooden shelving unit with grey storage bins. On the top shelf, there are several white ceramic vases of different shapes and sizes. The overall scene is well-lit and organized.
