

AROMATISK collection

September 2022

Let's celebrate that it's time to celebrate!

Yes, it's that time of the year. It's time for celebrations, good times, fun, love, peace and simply enjoying every second of life. At IKEA, we're adding to the celebrations with a new collection called AROMATISK. This is a colorful and inspiring range of home accessories. Designed to make your home even cozier and the celebrations even better. That's something to celebrate, too!

Inspired by the streets of India

We have worked with designer Luna Gil. As a textile designer, it felt natural to include India's deep-rooted traditional crafts like edge embroidery, block printing and indigo dyeing when I created the patterns for the AROMATISK collection.

The inspiration for this collection comes from different details and embellishment found in the streets of India.

Luna Gil

The new AROMATISK collection is designed to add not just a good vibe but also a touch of mystique.

Since the marigold is part of all the decorations created for the Diwali festival of lights, it was given a leading role along with bold colors and organic shapes. We hope that the collection will inspire and evoke a desire to decorate your home.
