Back to college & school 2020
As with any other adventure, going off to college comes with a lot of questions, like “Where do I hang my laundry,” “How can I make the most of a shared room,” or “What’s the best way to cook an egg?”

And, as anyone who’s done it will know, being the parent of school-aged children isn’t so easy either.

But, whether you’re moving into a shabby dorm room and want to spruce it up, or you’re just looking to create the perfect study area for your little ones, we can help.

For this year’s back to school and college season, our interior designers have curated a selection of IKEA products and solutions, found in our stores worldwide, that fit perfectly into any student’s life — no matter how small the space. You’ll find them shown on the following pages, as well as a sneak peek at our accompanying ad campaign.

After all, we know that by getting the practical stuff sorted out you make it so much easier to take advantage of the exciting things to come. All that’s left to do is to jump in with both feet and ask...

...what’s next?
I’m ready to cross the last thing off my list

Ever wondered what to pack for a big move? Try recording the things you use during the 3 months beforehand to see what definitely needs to come with you (and what maybe needs to be gotten rid of).
I’m ready to make my new space mine

These suction-cup hooks can be attached and detached easily, and without leaving any marks — which should help keep the landlord happy.
