How to build

AURDAL is a simple system that can do so much for you. It’s easy to assemble and you can customize it to suit all your storage needs. How do you pick a combination? We have some great ready made solutions but you can also design your own unique combination from scratch. There are four simple steps to follow:

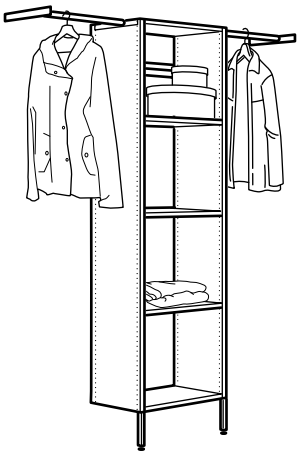

1. First of all you need to take in consideration of the space you have at home. All AURDAL combinations starts with the suspension rail. It’s important to make sure the suspension rail fits in the area where you’re planning to install your new wardrobe. The suspension rail comes in two sizes, 25⅝" and 49¼". If your space is bigger than that you can always place them next to each other to build a wider solution. And what about the height? All AURDAL wardrobes comes in one height which is 87”.
2. When you have decided on the width of your wardrobe it’s time to think about the AURDAL sections. You assemble your sections by hanging two side panels with legs on the suspension rail. The side panel have a cut out in the back so it’s easy to hang it on the suspension rail and move it around to find the correct spot. One section is always 23⅝" including the side panels.

   Do you want to have two sections next to each other? Or maybe even more than that? No problem! Since the side panels have holes on both sides it allows you to assemble AURDAL interiors on both sides. For example, if you want to have two AURDAL sections you would only need 3 side panels with legs.
3. The next step in the planning of your new wardrobe combination is shelves. You always need to place one shelf at the top of one AURDAL section and one at the bottom, this will make your wardrobe both sturdy and functional.
4. Now the rest is up to you! It’s time to plan the interiors of the wardrobe. It’s a good idea to think about what you need to store. Do you want to store dresses and shirts for example? AURDAL offers both a clothes rail that you can place inside your section but also an extendible one that you can use in the space between the wall and your AURDAL section, so you can utilize all the space that you got available.

   Do you need to store all your t-shirts or sweaters? Then a shelf or a wire basket might be able to help you out. Or maybe you want to be able to hide away your items? The AURDAL system also comes with a drawer. No matter what you want to store you can customize your AURDAL units after all your needs.
